5. THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

5.1 The Board of Directors has control of the Company and its property and funds. In an emergency the Directors holding the positions of Chairperson, President and Treasurer and the Secretary shall have the power to act after such consultation as can reasonably be achieved between them, and shall report the action taken to the next meeting of the Board of Directors

5.2 Unless otherwise determined by ordinary resolutions of the members, the number of Directors (inclusive of the President and Chairperson but exclusive of co-opted Directors appointed in accordance with Article 5.8 as additional directors and not to fill a vacancy) shall not be less than four and not more than nine individuals all of whom must be members

5.3 The subscribers to the Memorandum (other than Keith John Baker and Christopher Andrew Williams who are named as subscribers on the Memorandum) are the first Directors of the Company and may appoint such of their number as Chairman and President who shall hold such position until the first AGM upon which they shall retire in accordance with the terms of these Articles

5.4 Every Director must sign a declaration of willingness to act as a Director of the Company before he or she is eligible to vote at any meeting of the Directors and/or the Board of Directors

5.5. Nominations for election of the President and Chairperson shall be made in writing to the Secretary at least fourteen days prior to the AGM. They must be seconded in writing and the nomination must be accompanied by a personal statement in support of the nomination of between 200 and 300 words from the person nominated. Postal voting for the President and Chairperson is permitted for members not attending the AGM in addition to voting by hand at the AGM by those present. Eligible members may volunteer themselves, or be nominated by another member, for election as an ordinary Director either in advance of the AGM or at the start of the election item at the AGM. Candidates for ordinary Director positions must make a personal statement of between 100 and 200 words in support of their election either in writing in advance or orally at the AGM before voting commences. Where the Secretary receives a written statement in advance this must be circulated, if available, to members with the other AGM papers. All volunteers or nominees must be seconded to be eligible to stand for election. Ballot papers for postal voting for the President and Chairperson along with two envelopes to assure secrecy will be provided, after nominations close, to any member requesting them. Completed ballot papers returned for the election for the President and Chairperson will be checked off by the Secretary and handed unopened by the Secretary to the Tellers appointed at the AGM. Any member having submitted a postal ballot but wishing to vote by hand at the AGM will have their unopened postal ballot destroyed. Members who have served three consecutive terms in the position of either President or Chairperson may be nominated for election as a Director but shall not be eligible for nomination for the position of President or Chairperson previously held by them until the next following AGM.

5.6 Retiring elected Directors apart from the President and the Chairperson (who have been elected pursuant to Article 4 above) who have served as an elected Director for two successive terms shall not be eligible to stand for re-election as a Director until the next following AGM

5.7 A Director's term of office automatically terminates if he or she:

5.7.1 is disqualified by law from acting as a company director

5.7.2 is incapable of managing his or her own affairs

5.7.3 is absent from three consecutive meetings of the Directors without apology

5.7.4 ceases to be a member or is suspended (but such a person may be reinstated by resolution passed by a majority of the Board of Directors on resuming membership of the Company before the next AGM)

5.7.5 resigns by written notice to the Secretary (but only if at least four Directors will remain in office)

5.7.6 is removed by resolution passed by a majority of the members present and voting at a general meeting after the meeting has invited the views of the Director concerned and considered the matter in the light of any such views

5.8 The Board of Directors may at any time co-opt any person duly qualified to be appointed as a Director to fill a vacancy or as an additional Director provided that there are not more than three additional Directors at any time and provided that such appointment does not cause the number of Directors to exceed the number fixed by or in accordance with the Article as the maximum number of Directors. Co-opted Directors have the same rights as elected Directors with regard to the proceedings of the Directors

5.9 A technical defect in the appointment of a Director of which the Board of Directors are unaware at the time does not invalidate decisions taken at a meeting

5.10 Each of the Directors so appointed in accordance with Article 5.8 above and the President and the Chairperson and the nearest number to one third of the other Directors must retire at each AGM, those having served longest since appointment or election retiring first and the choice, if needed, between any of equal service being made by drawing lots

6.3 A meeting of the Board of Directors may be held either in person or by suitable electronic means agreed by the Directors in which all participants are in communication with all the other participants

6.4 The Chairperson or (if the Chairperson is unable or unwilling to do so) some other Director chosen by the Directors present presides at each meeting

6.5 Every issue is determined by a simple majority of the votes cast at a meeting of the Board of Directors, a quorum being present, but a motion received in writing by the Secretary, with the dated signatures of all the Directors and of whom a majority approve of the motion, is deemed to have been passed at a meeting (and for this purpose the resolution may be contained in more than one document and will be treated as passed on the date of the last signature)

6.6 Every Director has one vote on each issue except for the Chairperson, or (if the Chairperson is unable or unwilling to do so) some other Director chosen by the Directors present to preside at the meeting, who has a casting (second) vote in the event of equality of votes

6.7 A procedural defect of which the Directors are unaware at the time does not invalidate decisions taken at a meeting

7.1 to appoint (and remove) from among their number a Company Secretary to act in accordance with the Act until the start of the first meeting of the Board of Directors following the next AGM
